Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-20 are allowed.

Claims 1 and 15 are allowable. The reason for allowance is that the prior art of record fails to disclose or reasonably suggest an electrical apparatus positioned within said housing, said housing partially enclosing said electrical apparatus; and a flexible printed circuit board attached directly to an exterior surface of said housing, said board having a circuit printed thereon, and further having at least one heat-generating electrical component mounted on the an outside surface of said board . It is these features found in the claim, as they are claimed in the combination, which has not been found taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which makes this claim allowable over the prior art.

Claims 2-14 are allowed due to their dependency on claim 1.

Claim 16 is allowed due to its dependency on claim 15.

Claim 17 is allowable. The reason for allowance is that the prior art of record fails to disclose or reasonably suggest an electro-mechanical device positioned within said housing, said housing partially enclosing said electro-mechanical devices, and a flexible printed circuit board directly attached to an exterior surface of said housing, said board having a circuit printed thereon, and further having at least one heat-generating electrical component mounted on the an outside surface of said board. It is these features found in the claim, as they are claimed in the combination, which has not been found taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which makes this claim allowable over the prior art.

Claims 18-20 are allowed due to their dependency on claim 17.
